Parenting Support Offer

We know that being a parent can be both rewarding and challenging, and we all need a helping hand at times.

Knowing where to go and who to turn to can be vital to getting that help early and preventing further escalation.

Our parenting support programmes are a source of support for all parents and carers and offer an opportunity to share parenting experiences, develop a greater understanding of child development, build positive relationships and learn skills to deal with challenging behaviour.

What support can I get as a parent/carer and what do we offer in Sutton?

We provide the following parenting support programmes.

Empowering Parents Empowering Communities (EPEC)

- Being a Parent
- Being a Parent - Together

Care for the Family

- Time out for for Parents -///////////////he Teenage Years
- Time out for Parents - Managing Anger in the family
- Time Out for Parents - Autism

EPEC: Being a Parent course

What is EPEC

Empowering Parents, Empowering Communities (EPEC) is a proven method of prevention and early intervention that helps children and families get the very best start in life.

Parents tell us that the support programmes 'work'. They tell us that the Being a Parent and the Being a Parent-Together parenting programmes has helped to improve their family's lives and it has increased their confidence and skills as a parent.

What does EPEC offer?

- The delivery of peer-led parenting courses.
- 9 week course – 2 hours per session. This includes an coffee/information session at the beginning of the course.
- For up to 14 parents.
- Sessions are highly interactive involving an engaging and creative blend of small and large group discussion, role play, demonstrations, information sharing and reflection.
- Parents practice and use new skills in everyday life to achieve specific goals

Who is it suitable for?

Being a Parent Programme is suitable for any parent/carer with a child 2-11 years of age living in Sutton.

The course aims to improve child development and outcomes, parenting, family resilience and improve family relationships.

EPEC: Being a Parent - Together Course

Being a Parent - Together

Being a Parent - Together is a version of the Being a Parent programme, that has been adapted for couples and main carers who co-parent their children, aged 2-11 years, and who want to attend a parenting course together.

Parenting and the pressures of everyday life, can be stressful at times and can sometimes lead to conflict between parents.

Parents may have different views on parenting or they may be concerned about disagreements or quarrels and unresolved difficulties in their relationship that are affecting their parenting.

This course aims to make mothers and fathers welcome together.

It focuses on how mothers and fathers can transform the lives of their children by working and learning together.

The course improves family relationships which produces positive outcomes for children.
